F | NEW Gingerbread Caramels

It's easy to fall in love in Paris—especially with these exquisite caramels. Made by a family-run Parisian confectionary with the highest quality ingredients (including Charentes-Poitou butter, the butter of choice for chefs everywhere), these buttery soft caramels melt in your mouth and are lightly spiced with gingerbread flavor for a holiday twist. We'd go so far as to say they're the best caramels we've ever had. 18 caramels per box. Net wt. 5.8 oz.

C | NEW Duck Fat

Meet Duck Fat: the new darling of the culinary world. With a nutrition profile close to olive oil and a more distinctive flavor than regular old butter, this duck fat can be used in place of almost any common cooking fat to add gourmet texture and flavor to savory dishes. Try it with pan-fried potatoes, rubbed on a roast chicken, or sautéed with bitter greens. This particular duck fat is rendered—meaning it comes in liquid form—so it's incredibly easy to use.

Net wt. 11.3 oz.
